Plax Honored for work with The SPOT

Date: March 16 from 12 to 1
March 10 from 4:30 to 5:30

Vesoulis, Z.
Wilson, D.
Plax, K.
Hayashi, R.
Ferkol, T.
Bacharier, L.
Ahmad, F.

He graduated from the University of Pennsylvania Medical School with a BA in History and Biology and completed his medical degree from Thomas Jefferson University. He received a BA in Liberal Studies at the University of Pennsylvania. He also has an interest in global health, and completed his training in a nine Sepsis Model as well as hemodynamic support in Anthrax.

Dr. Vesoulis graduated from Miami University with a BA in History and Biology and a fellowship in Newborn Medicine. After completing his fellowship, he moved to the Division of Newborn Medicine. He served his residency at St. Louis Children's Hospital and was appointed as Assistant Professor of Pediatrics.

Prior to joining the faculty, she was a member of the Pediatric QI Committee. She was a member of the Pediatric QI Committee and served as Director of the Ambulatory Pediatric Unit. Dr. Vesoulis was a member of the Pediatric QI Committee and was appointed as Assistant Professor of Pediatrics.

Vesoulis received a fellowship in Newborn Medicine and a fellowship in Newborn Medicine. He completed his residency at St. Louis Children's Hospital and was appointed as Professor of Pediatrics and medical director of the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit.

Dr. Vesoulis has studied seizures in preterm infants and their consequences of malnutrition will be lifelong consequences. It is only with them that this connection is possible. Dr. Vesoulis' commitment to serving vulnerable populations is the foundation of her work at St. Louis Children's Hospital and Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital in Cleveland.

Vesoulis was created to honor the late Dr. Walentik's commitment to serving vulnerable populations. The SPOT campaign was created to honor the late Dr. Walentik's commitment to serving vulnerable populations. The SPOT campaign was created to honor the late Dr. Walentik's commitment to serving vulnerable populations. The SPOT campaign was created to honor the late Dr. Walentik's commitment to serving vulnerable populations.

Dr. Vesoulis' commitment to serving vulnerable populations is the foundation of her work at St. Louis Children's Hospital and Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital in Cleveland. Dr. Vesoulis' commitment to serving vulnerable populations is the foundation of her work at St. Louis Children's Hospital and Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital in Cleveland. Dr. Vesoulis' commitment to serving vulnerable populations is the foundation of her work at St. Louis Children's Hospital and Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital in Cleveland. Dr. Vesoulis' commitment to serving vulnerable populations is the foundation of her work at St. Louis Children's Hospital and Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital in Cleveland. Dr. Vesoulis' commitment to serving vulnerable populations is the foundation of her work at St. Louis Children's Hospital and Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital in Cleveland.